

Law of Confidence			Registered Designs (cont)			Trademark (cont)			Trademark (cont)
Quality of Confidence	Relation of Confidence	Unauthorised use of information	What cannot be registered? 'Must fit' / 'Must Match' / Computer program			capable of distinguishing goods and services with or provided in the course of trade	Consists exclusively of signs of kind, quality, intended purpose, value, geographical origin, time of production, characteristics	Trademark is identical to competitor's current one	From goods and services provided by any other person	Consists exclusively of signs or indications which are customary in current language or trade	Trademark conflicts with well known ones (does not have to be in same course of trade but the well known one has to prove that there is confusion in the public)
Information must NOT be trivial (Must be confidential)	Obligation of confidence?	'public interest' defence	Defences? If the person was not aware of the registered design, then no account of profits/damages
Ideas can be protected as long as it is sufficiently developed to be saleable and is able to be realised			Trademark
Government Secrets, Trade Secrets, Personal Information, Artistic & Literary information			Elements	Absolute Grounds for Refusal	Relative Grounds for refusal
Anton Pillar order - order made against defendant to allow a plaintiff to enter the defendant premises and remove documents or evidence which are essential to the legal proceedings			Capable of being represented graphically	Not distinctive	Trademark is identical to competitor's earlier trademark & deal in the same course of trade				Honest concurrent use - mark will not be refused on grounds of S8 if applicant is honest concurrent user.
Registered Designs									Both marks have been in use for a similar period of time, no intention of part of concurrent user to take unfair advantage of the applicant mark
What is a design?			Features of shape, configuration, pattern or ornament applied to an article by industrial process
What can be registered?			Any design which is new (Novel)

By elementhalo

Not published yet.
Last updated 10th May, 2016.
Page 1 of 2.

Sponsored by Readable.com
Measure your website readability!
<https://readable.com>

Law of Passing Off		Patent Infringement		Copyright
Elements	Defences	What constitutes patent infringement	What are the Defences?	What can be Copyrighted?	Connecting factors for protection in SG
Goodwill (within country)	No damage/ likelihood of damage	Disposing of/ use/ import/ keeping product	Done privately & not for commercial purposes	Literary Work	Work is first published in SG
Defendant made a misrep	Public haven't heard of plaintiff	Using/offering process for use in SG when he knows that the use without the consent would be an infringement	Experimental purpose	Dramatic Work	Author is Singaporean/ ordinarily resident
Misrep is made in the same course of trade	Public haven't heard of Defendant	Disposing of/ use/ import/ keeping of any product obtained directly by means of patented process	For a medicine in accordance with a prescription	Artistic Work
Misrep must/ is likely to cause damage	Public is not confused between the 2 products		consists of use on aircraft, hovercraft or vehicle	Musical Work
Patents		Copyright Infringement
Requirements?		Primary	Secondary	Fair Dealing defence
Novelty (new, not made public)		eg. making an unauthorised copy of a book	eg. selling an unauthorised copy of a book	Research and study
Inventive Step (cannot be obvious) - Test is whether a person skilled in the art would say that the invention is obvious				Criticism and review
Industrial Application (can be industrially manufactured & used)				Reporting current events
For the patent application, there must be clear and complete disclosure

By elementhalo

cheatography.com/elementhalo/

Not published yet.
Last updated 10th May, 2016.
Page 2 of 2.

Sponsored by Readable.com
Measure your website readability!
<https://readable.com>